Keynote Speaker and SLRL Presentation

TRACEY EZARD

Tracey is known for her 'Ferocious Warmth' leadership approach and professional collaborative culture work.

Tracey's collaborative framework The Buzz, which creates an environment of learning, trust and innovation, is used in education and organisational systems throughout Australia, New Zealand and the UK.

Tracey is the 2022 recipient of the ACELVic Hedley Beare Educator of the Year award, a National Fellow of the Australian Council of Education Leaders (FACEL) and a Certified Speaking Professional.

She was awarded the Professional Speakers Association Breakthrough Speaker of the Year Award in 2023.

She has a background in teaching and educational leadership in the Victorian state system, business management and HR in fine dining restaurants and project management in the automotive industry as part of the Teacher Release to Industry Program.

SLRL PRESENTATION

Senior Leader's Renewal Leave (SLRL) Presentation

Two principals will outline the process of applying for SLRL, completing the final documentation, and highlighting the wonderful opportunities that abound.

This will be followed by a presentation by Harvest Journeys, who specialise in coordinating faith-based travel. Where everything from tours, transport and accommodation is arranged for you.
